

A

The diagram consists of two nested rectangles. The outer rectangle is larger, and the inner rectangle is smaller and centered within the outer one. Both rectangles are defined by black outlines. The label 'A' is positioned in the center of the inner rectangle, and the label 'B' is positioned in the center of the outer rectangle, below the inner one.

B